REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 13,17,20-22,33,36-38, and 45-46 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Shaffer et al (6,748,426) show a method, computer readable medium, and system for providing an interactive voice response system comprising: recognizing at least one word spoken by a user (voice recognition) using a grammar that is automatically updated (phone number grammar, address grammars, and name grammars from an updated Census bureau list, col 1. 13, ln 7-22) obtaining at least one set of topics of questions from the sources external (col 1. 24, ln 2-12, news) which are from updated sources of information external (proper external database, col 1. 26, ln 5-8) to the interactive voice response system (col. 13). In regard to claims 13,17,20,36, and 37, Shaffer et al. do not specifically show a system or computer readable medium outputting an audio signal containing a list of available news report providers, receiving selection of at least one news report provider by automatically obtaining at least one set of topics for questions spoken by the user from news reports by the at least one news report-provider; automatically updating a grammar using the at least one set of topics, and recognizing at least one word spoken by the user based on the grammar. In regard to claims 21 and 45, Shaffer et al. do not show automatically updating the grammar based on calendar information stored for a user recognizing at least one word spoken by the user using the grammar. In regard to claim 33, Shaffer et al. do not show automatically comparing message words in at least one message for a user with information in a synonym
